Dear Chad,

Did you recognize the writing?
Talk about a voice from your past,
right?

Just wanted to send my congratulations for this wonderful honor you have received. So often, in this day and age, heroic efforts like yours are lost in all the negative news. I am so happy that this wasn't.

Terri Corriveau

I am very proud of you and not surprised in the least, that you were willing to get involved.

I miss seeing all you Evans at McDonald's...but now I know where to find you!

Good luck in the future and congratulations again - (I'll bet your face got red!)

Love,
Miss Corriveau
