To Judge McDean

In regards to Mr. Chad Evans, There is alot to this man that has not been seen. I have known this gentleman for 13 years of my life. We went to school together for a couple of years and graduated together. His company in High school was great and went beyond school time together. We went places and did events on the weekends. As we both did grow older, we grew up. As I have known him for years I seen him turn into even a better person in life. When he is around he lights up everything. His tenour in thing his meaning is to make everyone happy in life. As I watched him get married and have a child (kyle) was great to see. His patience goes far beyond normal, Take the time to show him (kyle) the right's an wrong's. An when you see him with his son, you see a glow of passion of love for kyle. Chad has always been wonderful to people. He has a heart of gold. I hope that I will be a good as a father as he has been. What has happend to him is so unbeliavbe an so wrong it hurts. I could write page upon pages of this great person. ~~He~~ He is just like what alot of people should Be and That is - A Great Person - Timothy Goodreau
