

Judge Nadeau,

2/1/02

Please take a minute to hear about the Chad Evans that I know. I've known him for a while now, and he's always been a fun, loving, caring, generous person, he's always been a very strong, sincere, + loving person not only to everybody he knows, but to Cassidy as well.

I've seen them together many times. He was always good to her, playing peek a boo ABC - counting + teaching her.

He loved her deeply as if she was his own child.

I don't know if anything I write will make a difference but please take it into consideration.

Sincerely
Michelle Heuell -
