Dear Judge Nadeau:

I have known and worked with Chad for almost 15 years. He worked very hard for the position of Area Supervisor with the company. He was dedicated to his job as he was to his family. Chad was very well liked and had respect from each and every one of his co-workers.

Once a year, McDonald's would provide lunch for the New Hampshire Special Olympics, which was held at UNH in Durham. Chad was always in charge of this event. He would coordinate the delivery and serving of the food. He had a fantastic rapport with all the Olympians and everyone loved him. This day always ran smoothly because of him. He put everything into this event to make sure the kids were happy. Many times the kids would come up to thank McDonald's for lunch. Chad would have a big smile on his face because it meant so much to him that they really appreciate the hard work he did to feed over 2,000 athletes. A few times Chad brought his son Kyle with him. Chad was very proud of Kyle. He would proudly show him off to everyone. He was always very affectionate. Chad's face always lit up when he talked about his son. He was so happy to be a dad and it meant the world to him. Kyle is one of the most important people in Chad's life. He is truly a wonderful dad. He even treated his stepson as if he were his own son. When we would talk about his family, he had two boys, not just one. Chad was very easy to talk to. He was a lot of fun to be around. I have the utmost respect for him as a person and as a friend.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Sincerely,
