To Judge Tina Nadeau,

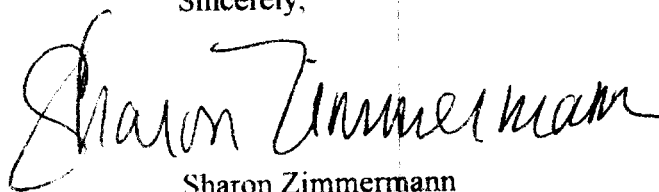

I am writing this letter on behalf of Chad Evans to tell you how he, as a friend, has affected my life. I have only known Chad for a few years but in that time I believe that I have been able to see him for what he really is, a great friend, brother, and an extremely loving father.

I met Chad through his sister Nicole. In fact, I have met their entire family. They spend a lot of time together and I find that it is rare these days to see a family is that is as tightly bonded as the Evans family. They are not one of those families that only get together for special occasions because they feel obligated to; they really love each other.

Chad's love for his son, Kyle, is so powerful. They are best friends. If their hugs, kisses, and affection towards each other don't say anything for Chad's love, personality, and his character, then I don't know what else to say. He is truly a wonderful father to Kyle. Chad is so proud of him, as he should be, because he has raised an intelligent, polite, happy, and loving child. Kyle thinks the world of his daddy and they should not ever have to be apart. They are lucky to have each other, so many children don't have the privilege to have such a loving father that is concerned, more than anything, about his little boy.

I am proud to know someone with such love in his heart and I know that many people that know or have met Chad feel the same way. I will continue to pray for him until he is home with his family, where I believe he should be. If you spend any time with Chad, I know that you will be able to see Chad as all of us who love him do. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
